WE LOVE POLYETHYLENE

It's time to tame the fear of polyethylene.

Do you know that its production process requires less energy than in case of traditional plastic? In this way, less harmful CO₂ gets into the atmosphere. Moreover, polyethylene can be recycled over and over again, unlike the paper consisting of fibers, which become weaker over time.

If you are still wondering why we love polyethylene, the answer is easy – we care about the environment, you and your space.
